SUBJECT: Cambodia: The Military Situation

25X1

Cambodian Army troops yesterday continued to advance against Khmer Communist elements located between Route 1 and the Bassac River.

Elsewhere along the capital's southern defense line, other government forces made headway in sweep operations near the junction of Routes 3 and 201. Elements of the nearby 1st Division, however, are still meeting stiff opposition as they try to root out Communist troops north of the Prek Thnaot River. Northwest of Phnom Penh, the army's 7th Division did not carry out any offensive moves on February 8 as its units rested and refitted.
